

This week we pray for every

“Cornelius” in the Muslim World

I believe that the Holy Spirit is preparing many Muslims to receive Christ. Even before Peter saw a vision that opened his heart to minister to Gentiles, an angel visited Cornelius and told him to send for Peter (Acts 10:3-5). Even before God told Elijah to go to Zarephath, He commanded a widow in that town to receive the prophet and feed him (1 Kings 17:8-9).

Peter arrived at a Gentile home that was ready and ripe to receive Christ! Elijah arrived at a Gentile home that was ready to acknowledge that Yahweh, the God of Israel, lives!

Many Muslims are having visions and dreams of and about Jesus. They are ready to accept the Gospel. That's what happened with my friend Tariq. It also happened with Tawfik and Omar and many others.

PRAYER

Almighty God, Maker of all people, You love us all. You planned redemption for all. You are the only true Lord and Savior. We worship and bless You. Help me to hear the cry of millions of Muslims begging us: Come over... and help us (Acts 16:9)! Lead me to someone who is searching for the truth. Yes, send me, Lord, to a needy Muslim today. Prepare that person; and may I speak to him or her words by which they will be saved (Acts 11:14). May I minister Your Word and Your grace and love to that soul. I pray that when I open my mouth, he or she will take note that "I have been with Jesus" (Acts 4:13). I am asking this for Your glory.

For the sake of Christ, our Redeemer, show them Your favor, forgive their sins, heal their diseases, keep them from eternal death, and crown them with Your mercy and love. Bring them into Your Kingdom. Fill them with Your Holy Spirit. May they in turn bring many souls to salvation.

In the precious name of Your Son, my Lord Jesus. Amen.

PROMISE

The heir to David's throne will come, and he will rule over the Gentiles. They will place their hopes on him (Romans 15:12, NLT).
